About Salim Fields

Salim Fields was born on May 5, 1969 in Brooklyn, New York and grew up the only child of Janice Fields. His mother was an artist at heart who, due to her responsibilities as a single parent, never fulfilled her dreams in the art world.

Salim attended Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, NY. During his senior year in Pratt, Salim fell in love with abstract art. In 2007, Salim graduated with a BFA.

Salim finds his work can be a valuable healing tool, both calming and inspiring. It sparks creativity, helping the observer explore another side of life through vibrant earth tones and organic movement.

Commissions Created For You:

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU LOVE WHEN YOU SEE IT BUT HAVE BEEN SEARCHING AND CANNOT FIND SOMETHING THAT WORKS PERFECTLY FOR YOU.

YOU WANT TO WORK WITH AN ARTIST WHO CAN UNDERSTAND AND ELEVATE YOUR UNIQUE STYLE.

SO LET'S CREATE SOMETHING SPECIAL TOGETHER AND MAKE YOUR ROOM COME ALIVE.

I love the opportunity to create special custom artwork for collectors, designers, architects, and art consultants. If you are not quite sure how to start, that is okay, let me help and let's start this journey together as well as enjoyable.

THE PROCESS: Let's talk about your ideas and inspiration for the piece, including the size, and the colours you want and do not want incorporated. What the interior is like and the mood you want to create.

Pick one or two of my paintings which are your favorites and tell me what you like and do not like about them. For example, if you want more black and less white.

We agree upon all the details and to confirm we
